

Author Biography: M. Funk

M. Funk has always had a fondness for creative expansion, whether it be in the form of multiple college degrees and small businesses or a heap of artistic pursuits. What's a girl to do with an infinite supply of curiosity and an insatiable passion for learning, she wondered? Ah-ha! She could be a writer. She could use her observations and experience to craft stories . . . truth-inspired fictions . . . intertwined tales of interwoven lives rife with morals and musings. And with these stories, she could (she hopes!) reach out into the ether and make contact with like-minded souls.

When she's not busy pondering the meaning of her daily observations, M. Funk lives in Minneapolis, MN and pays regular visits to the captivating raptors that live at the nearby pond.
